When the Republican Cyclone sweeps over this territory in November there will not be democrats enough left to pass resolutions even in Tucson.

Judge John Easton will appear before the Republican Convention for the office of District Attorney. The Judge is well qualified for the nomination.

V. H. Igo made this office a very pleasant call this afternoon. He says that no matter whether he is shut out of the county by the recent survey, he can't stay away from Tombstone.

Gus Barron will take his departure on Sunday next for San Bernardino county, California, where he will take charge of the workings of a gold mine for Ed. Schieffelin.

If you don't read THE TOMBSTONE you don't get the news as it is the only paper in the county that gets regular dispatches and publishes the London and New York quotations of silver.

Ben Cook one of the best firemen in the Tombstone fire department received the nomination for Chief Engineer by acclamation from Rescue Hose Company last evening.

Tom Gregory was thirty-eight years old yesterday and celebrated the event in an appropriate manner. THE TOMBSTONE trusts that these present anniversaries may return for twice as many years yet.

The horse attached to Dr. Goodfellow's buggy, took a notion to run away last night, and suiting the action to the notion, he started off on a brisk run and when he finished the carriage looked as though it had been struck by lightning.

Chas. Overlock who came in from Soldier Holes yesterday is not a democratic delegate as the Epitaph announced this morning but a straight-out republican and a delegate to the County Convention which meets on Monday next. He is also spoken of as a candidate for Supervisor.

OUR ARMY OF THE DEAD.

BY MISS GERTIE BARBER.

I.
By the edge of the Atlantic, where the waves of freedom roar,
And the breezes of the ocean chant a requiem to the shore,
On the Nation's eastern hilltops, where its corner-stone is laid,
On the mountains of New England, where our fathers toiled and prayed,
Mid old Keystone's rugged riches, which the miner's hand await,
Mid the never-ceasing commerce of the busy Empire State,
With the country's love and honor on each brave, devoted head,
Is a band of noble heroes—is our Army of the Dead.

II.
On the lake-encircled homestead of the thriving Wolverine,
On the beautiful western prairies, with their carpeting of green,
By the sweeping Mississippi, long our country's pride and boast,
On the rugged Rocky Mountains, and the weird Pacific coast,
In the listless, sunny Southland, with its blossoms and its vines,
On the bracing Northern hilltops, and amid their murmuring pines,
Over all our happy country—over all the Nation spread,
Is a band of noble heroes—is our Army of the Dead.

III.
Not with musket and with sabre, and glad heart beating fast;
Not with cannon that had thundered till the bloody war was past;
Not with voices that are shouting with the vim of victory's note;
Not with armor gaily glistening, and with flags that proudly float;
Not with air of martial vigor, nor with steady soldier tramp,
Come they grandly marching to us—for the boys are all in camp,
With forgetfulness upon it—each within his earthly bed,
Waiting for his marching orders—is our Army of the Dead.

IV.
Fast asleep the boys are lying, in their low and narrow tents,
And no battle-cry can wake them, and no orders call them hence;
And the yappings of the mother, and anguish of the wife,
Can not with their magic presence, call the soldier back to life;
And the brother's manly sorrow, and the father's mournful pride,
Can not give back to his country, him who for his country died.
They wait for the trembling Nation, in its hour of trial tried,
In its its years of triumph, with our Army of the Dead.

V.
When the years of earth are over, and the gates of earth are done,
When the reign of time is ended, and Eternity begun,
When the thunders of Omnipotence, on our weakened senses roll;
And the sky above shall wither, and be gathered like a scroll;
When, among the lofty mountains, and across the mighty sea,
The sublime celestial bugler, shall ring out the reveille,
Then shall march with brightest laurels, and with proud victorious tread,
To their station up in heaven, our Grand Army of the Dead.

VI.

It is just the thing now to wear a blue grass button hole bouquet when you greet Mark A. Smith.

The next few days will be taken up by candidates to office, interviewing the various delegates to the County Convention.

Another rich strike was made in the Bunker Hill mine to-day, and its superintendent, B. S. Coffman is as happy as a bird.

In another column will be found a poem written and delivered by Miss Gertie Barber, a daughter of our fellow townsman C. T. Barber.

The County Treasurer, A. J. Ritter, has executed three deeds of property from the Territory to persons in this city.

Andy Ritter may have been "coffin" for the last five years, but he is able and will prepare a coffin for his opponent whoever he may be, this fall.

J. A. Rokohl is a candidate for the office of City Treasurer. Gus old boy is popular and will be hard to down.

The Republican Candidates who have announced themselves in THE TOMBSTONE are recognized by the delegates.

The race between Charlie Leach's pacer and Lieut. Richards trotter did not come off yesterday afternoon on account of the rain.

All persons are cautioned to keep out of the office of THE TOMBSTONE after working hours or they will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Mr. Jas. Kirk left yesterday morning for Fort Bowie whether he has gone to obtain if possible the horses that Geronimo and band stole from him in Sonora.

Herrera & McClure have made up their mind to stay with the camp, and to that end have ordered a fine new assortment of goods, which will arrive in a few days.

It must have been a pleasing sight to see Brawley and Hughes dwelling together in unity during the recent Democratic pow-wow in Tucson.

Pretty Dick Rule, who has been using the scissors on the Democrat during the absence of Mr. Brawley, is now outside again trying to become the popular candidate for Recorder on the Democratic ticket.

Lost—A gold locket and an old English Guinea. Coming from the State of Maine Mine to Tombstone. Ten dollars will be paid for the return of the same at Jack Martin's saloon.

2t.

The Anti-Chinese League met last evening and nominated a city ticket killing all the offices except for City Attorney and Chief of Police. These offices will be filled at their next meeting.

Dick the Dude edited the Record two years ago and the Democratic party got it in the neck. He is now wielding the scissors on the Democrat and the party has already commenced to decline.

The city delegates will hold a meeting in this city on Saturday evening, for the purpose of considering who are the proper persons to fill the various city offices, and those who desire to be candidates had better make themselves known by an announcement through the papers.

Upon two different days the columns of THE TOMBSTONE have been so crowded, that we were unable to publish the County Records, and if our readers will take the pains to notice, they will see that neither of our morning contemporaries had them upon the days they failed to appear in these columns.

Notice.
All parties having hats, belts or other property belonging to the Rescue Hose Company, will please return the same at once and avoid trouble.

President
